Tee Dobinson Biography

Award-winning author Tee Dobinson is Aspire Leadership's Special Projects Director Tee Dobinson is authority on leadership and personal development and a successful executive coach and speaker with an accessible style.

Tee has delivered keynote addresses globally, trained over 100,000 people and, as an executive coach, supported many individuals to success. Her vast experience in the corporate, government and public arenas underpins her own success, along with her consistent ability to assess complex situations quickly and to find effective solutions.

Tee's energy, natural warmth, sparkle and optimism lifts a room, whether that's one to one, in a small group or in a large conference arena.

Tee's background is steeped in learning and development. She has designed and led bespoke training programmes for over twenty-five years, led ILM courses in Line Management for two years for a London local government and ran leadership projects for Aspire in Ethiopia, Sierra Leone and France before joining the London-based team as Special Projects Director.

Tee is also the author of five books, and the editor of many more. She has worked as a Leadership Expert for the EU, is a previous winner of Trainer of the Year and a nominee for Business Woman of the Year. She was a sponsored Nike fitness athlete for eight years, representing the iconic brand in Europe and the USA and co-founded the creative agency Baizdon, which produces tailored publications monetising brands. Many London landmarks are in their portfolio.

At Aspire Leadership, Tee works mainly within the leadership/senior team arena and on presenting personal brand.
